(a) Describe Christian beliefs about what happens to people after death.

[8]

Answer 1

Christians believe that good people go to heaven and bad people go to hell.

Answer 2

Christians think that when you die you go to heaven and live with God forever.

Answer 3

Not all Christians think the same thing about life after death. Most Christians believe that there is a place called heaven where people live forever in the presence of God. Some believe that all people go there because God forgives everyone, others believe that the only people who go to heaven are people who are committed Christians. Some Christians believe that those who don't go to heaven will go to Hell, and be tortured for eternity, others argue that if God truly loves mankind he would not do this. Roman Catholics believe that there is a middle place called Purgatory, in this place you work off your sins until you are fit for heaven.

Answer 4

I think that when you are dead that's it and the worms eat your flesh until you are just a skeleton.

Answer 5

Christians think that you are reincarnated and if you are bad you will go to hell.

Answer 6

Some Christians believe in hell for bad people where they will be punished forever. Others think that there is no hell because God isn't cruel. Christians also say that if you are good you will go to heaven. Some Christians (Roman Catholics I think!) think that there is a place called purgatory where you do a penance until Saint Peter lets you through the pearly gates.

Answer 7

Christians go to heaven, to live in the presence of God forever, the rest burn in hell forever.

Answer 8

Christians think everyone will go to heaven.

Answer 9
